The light of wood

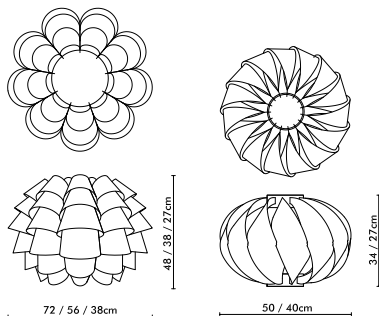

L

The light of wood

The veneer lamp shades were first designed in 1962 by Nives and Franc Vehovar. Back then, the lights were completely handmade and were never mass produced. Fifty years later, with some changes in design and with the help of contemporary technologies, we have compiled an extended family of lights. New sizes, forms and usages were added in a wide range of wood veneers.

Design: Kaja Lipnik Vehovar
